IRELAND.

Limerick, May 14.

LAST Wednesday died here Mrs. Alice Creagh, Wife of Mr. James Creagh, Merchant of this Town, and Daughter of Mr. Creagh, an eminent Merchant in Dublin. She was remarkable for many amiable Virtues which gained the Love and Esteem of all her Acquaintance, as well as of the Poor, whom she constantly relieved.

Dublin, May 23. By Letters from Bristol we have an Account of the Death of Lieutenant Colonel Pyot, of the Right Hon. General Pearce's Regiment of Horse on this Establishment, who died at the Hot Wells near that City the 9th Instant.

Last Thursday died Mrs. Porter, Wife of Alderman Porter.

On Tuesday last James Irwin of Rocksborough in the County of Roscommon, Esq; was married to Miss Hudson, a beautiful young Lady, with a Fortune of 12,000 l.

Monday last Capt. Houlfe was married to Miss Kitty Thompson, Daughter to Capt. Thompson, an agreeable young Gentlewoman with a handsome Fortune.

The same Day the Rev. Mr. Millham was married to Miss Ann Kellinghusan, Daughter to the Rev. Dr. Andrew Kellinghusan of the Dutch Church.

Next Week there will be a general Review of the Regiments on Duty here in Town, and afterwards we hear the General will proceed to Review the Army in the Country, beginning at Phillipstown the first of June.

This Week Eight Felons were transmitted from Kilkenny to this City, and shipped for his Majesty's Plantations in America.

On Tuesday last the Right Hon. the Earl of Anglesea arrived here from Parkgate.

The same Day the Right Hon. Sir Thomas Prendergast, the Hon. Brigadier Colonel Ligonier, and several other Persons of Note, embarked on board the Dublin Yacht for Parkgate.

Same Day four Men were committed to Newgate for insulting the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, as his Lordship pass'd through College Green.

Last Sunday Morning Mr. John Deferoy, Son of Alderman Deferoy of Kilkenny, and Clerk to the Collector of that County, cut his Throat at his Lodgings in Sycamore Alley, and died about two in the Afternoon. The Maid about seven in the Morning went into his Room, as usual, to ask him if he would have any Whey; when she saw him in this sad Condition, she immediately told her Master, who sent for a Surgeon, and upon searching the Wound found the Wind Pipe was cut, and no Possibility of joining it, he bound up the Wound, having first put in a leaden Tube, which giving Ease to him, made Signs for a Pen and Ink, which being brought, he wrote as follows. 'I am as strong as a Horse, or could not hold out so long, I send in haste for a Clergyman, or I shall go without him.' The Minister being come, ask'd him if he was sorry for what he did? He wrote, he was, and made Signs of Penitence. He also wrote, that 'having received some Sights from his Friends in Town, was the Occasion of what he did.' And having wrote a Kind of a Will, he died in Convulsions, having held out about twelve Hours, for by a Noise that was heard in the Room, 'tis supposed that he cut his Throat about three in the Morning.

Mr. Deferoy was observed to be melancholy and disorder'd in his Senses two or three Days before by several Circumstances, which appeared before the Inquest, upon which it was brought in Lunacy.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, May 23. Last Week the Magistrates sentenced Mother Garvie (alias Lady Mummichaw) to be drummed about the Streets of the City on Friday next, to be afterwards remanded to Prison, till she enact never again to be seen in this City or Liberties, on Pain of a Fine of 20 l. Sterl. and three Years Imprisonment in the House of Correction, for keeping a disorderly House.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Exon, May 26. Last Monday was se'nnight the Wife of Thomas Carew of Crowcombe in the County of Somerset, Esq; was delivered of a Daughter, but having continued very ill ever since, she Yesterday about 8 o'Clock in the Morning died, universally lamented by all who ever had the Favour of her Acquaintance, and especially by her Husband, who is inconsolable on the Occasion. She was the eldest Daughter of Francis Drew, late of Grange in the County of Devon, Esq; (who represented this City in Parliament for many Years) and Sister to the present High Sheriff of the County of Devon.

Walter Cary, Esq; being appointed one of the Clerks Comptrollers of the Board of Green Cloth, was Yesterday rechosen Member of Parliament for Dartmouth, without Opposition.

A few Days ago at Broadcliff near this City, Arthur Acland, an eminent Portugal Merchant, and Brother to the late Sir Hugh Acland, Bart; was married to Miss Gilbert, Niece of George Veale, Esq; lately deceased, a young Lady of great Merit, and a Fortune of 15,000 l.

Norwich, May 27. On Monday last began our Races, when three started for the Purse of Thirty Pounds, which was won by Sir Edmund Bacon of Gillingham's Chestnut Horse, who came in first the first and second Heats. On Tuesday four started for the Purse of Twenty Pounds, which was won by Mr. Marshall's Horse, Merry Batchelor, who came in first the first and second Heats. On Wednesday three started for the Purse of Fifty Pounds, which was won by Mr. Garfide's Chestnut Horse, Fear-Not: The Bets before starting were five to one on a Mare call'd Lady's Thigh, who won the first Heat; but Mr. Garfide's Fear-Not, won the second and third Heats with Ease, and carried off the Purse of Fifty Pounds. The Concourse of People was so great, that all the Stands were crowded with Spectators; and an intire Wall was made with Foot, Horse, Chaises, and Coaches, quite round the whole Course on both Sides; so that at a modest Computation, there could not be less than Fourscore Thousand Souls on the Ground; the like never seen, we may safely affirm, at any Race in the Kingdom before. The Whole of the Races was so admirably well conducted, that all the Course was kept intirely clear for the Runners, and not so much as a Dog was suffered to cross the Ground: and what is still more remarkable, though the Foot People were so numerous among the Horsemen, Chaises and Coaches, (of which latter there were 110 numbered on the Ground) yet there was not any Accident happened, nor so much as a Disorder committed: As these Races are intended to be yearly continued, and strictly limited always to the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in Whitsun Week, they will be of infinite Advantage to the City, and must find Incouragement by all Well-Wishers to the Welfare thereof: Besides, it can never fail of Numbers of Gentry from other Parts, as no other Place for Horse-Racing in the Kingdom, has so great Convenience for Accommodation.

Bristol, May 27. Immediately after the Post's Arrival with the agreeable News of the Birth of the new-born Prince, the Bells of this City rung out on this happy Occasion. Great Rejoicings are expected in the Evening.

Yesterday a Halfler was committed to Newgate, (not being able to give sufficient Bail) for unfortunately breaking a Woman's Leg with his Dray: He was so void of Humanity, that after the Mischief was done, he refused to help the poor Woman into a House, or to give her the least Assistance.

The same Day was also committed to Newgate, a Soldier belonging to the Regiment quarter'd here, for actually committing the detestable Sin of Buggery with a young Lad, whom he had decoy'd to lie with him at his Lodgings in the Pithay. The Boy has sworn to the Emulsion, which makes the Crime of a Capital Nature. From hence the Publick may expect to see an Example made of one of those infamous Wretches, whose numerous Tribe have too often slipp'd the Hand of Justice.

Seven Persons in this City have been convicted on the Informations of those Women formerly mentioned, for retailing Spirituous Liquors contrary to Law; two whereof are on the 100 l. Penalty.

The Highwaymen committed to Gloucester Castle for robbing Farmer Bartlet of Patchway Green, have confess'd two Robberies committed by them on Old Down near Bath.

They write from Iiminster, a Market Town 9 Miles from Taunton, that last Saturday se'nnight a terrible Fire broke out there in the Day Time, at a D. er's House; and that upwards of 26 Houses were laid in Ashes. As those Houses were cover'd with Thatch, the whole Town was endanger'd, and in all Probability must have been destroy'd, had the Wind blown from the Northward so hard as it did from the Southward; for the Fire laid Waste all before it from the House it began at, to the last House on the North Side.

Saturday the 13th Instant, Thomas Hufsay, John Shepherd, and Morris Willis, assaulted, beat, and kick'd Mr. Holder who kept the Collyflower in Gloucester-Lane, in so violent a Manner, that he languished till the 19th, and then died. He has left a Wife and 6 Children. They afterwards committed divers other Outrages in the Neighbourhood; but 'tis hop'd, as they are pretty well known, the Country will not be backward in bringing 'em to Justice, for nothing contributes more to such Disorders, than an easy Forbearance of Prosecution.

An Ode of SIMILIES,

On some late Imitations of HORACE.

The Latin printed on one Side, and the English on the other.

Inscribed to the IMITATOR.

HALF the learn'd Scheme must needs succeed,
Which thy arch Muse has lately try'd;
Since they who buy the Work, and read,
Must prize at least the Roman Side.

Thus Bratch each Morn, and Rockwood shew,
When coupled for the Silvan Chase;
Tho' one is fleet, and t'other slow,
They both jog on, the self same Pace.

Let Courtiers frown, or Criticks sneer,
Write on — thy Heart, and Muse at ease,
For while thy Flaccus sings so near,
One Page in two is sure to please.

In Lots of Goods at Sturbrige Fair,
When cunning Cits their Auctions hold;
Thus to retail their damag'd Ware,
The New must help to sell the Old.

Think not the Price of Copies hard,
Nor more than is thy Poet's Due;
Since those who buy the Latin Bard,
Tenon, must buy the English too.

The Youth thus smit with Flavia's Air,
Who wou'd her Hand in Wedlock hold,
Must take the Gipsie, with the Fair,
And with the Beauty wed the Scold.

Ne'er print thy Works henceforth alone,
But Hand in Hand the Task pursue;
Who think it dear to purchase One,
May own it cheap, to buy the Two.

Thus Jernegan both Fools and Wife
Draws in — all Ages and all Ranks,
Who smile, to view one single Prize
Propos'd, to pay for Rheams of Blanks.

So pleasing is the fair Device
Plann'd with such Art, and fram'd so well,
Tho' nothing else bears any Price,
The Cistern does the Baubles sell.

Here from old Pagan poultry Names,
The Muse in English tries to wean us;
For Caesar, placing warlike James,
And pious St. J——, for Macenas.

Al Flaccus—were thy British Bard
But oddly to his Friend behaves;
Who gives thy good Man's great Reward
To Madmen now, and now to Knaves!

Those who deserve'd the Ax and Rods,
In thy own lov'd Octavius Days,
Make pious Hgro's, Saints and Gods,
In British Verse, and Tew—m Lays.

Thy Patriots all in Virtue nurst,
For generous Actions were renown'd;
His, by his Country scorn'd or curst,
Are Traitors first, and after crown'd.

He sees what Poet never saw,
Wildom in Fools, and Grace in Rakes:
As curious Chymists often draw
Perfume, and Essence from a Jakes.

Go plot, be false, in Fraud excel,
Inspire Sedition, Faction raise;
Insult thy King—thy Country sell,
If thou canst Sin, good P—pe can praise.

That Height of matchless Guilt transcend,
Where living Ch—st—rs never soar'd!
Thou art his Genius, God, and Friend,
Extol'd in Prose, in Verse ador'd.

THE last French Mail brought Advice, that one of the French India Company's Ships, call'd the Philibert, arriv'd at Port l'Orient the 12th of last Month from Bengall, and that about the End of this Month, or the Beginning of next, 6 others are expected from Pontichery, Bengall, China and the Isle of Bourbon.

They write, that the King of Spain has made a Present to the Prelate Alkiviri, who brought the Cardinal's Hat to the Infante Don Lewis, of a Ring worth 15,000 Livres, a Pectoral Cross of 20,000 Livres, 2000 Spanish Pistoles, and a Pension of 10,000 Pieces of Eight. His Catholic Majesty has also made a Present of 12,000 Pieces of Eight to Cardinal Acquaviva, the Spanish Minister, who is going to Ferrara to meet the Queen of the Sicilies, and accompany her to the Frontiers of Naples.

Letters from Hanover say, there's an incredible Concourse of People to the Waters of Studthagen, which is a Place not far from Pymont, and belongs to the Count de la Lippe Buckebourg, who has caus'd a good Number of pretty Houses to be built in and about that Bathwick, very commodious for Lodgings.

They write from Dantzick, that the Price of Corn begins to fall considerably, and that there's like to be a plentiful Harvest in Prussia and Poland.

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Drops For ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS.

That have been Sold so many Years, and with such common Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry, and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; and, since Mr. Parry's Decease, have been and still are sold only by Mr. Read for 3 s. 6 d. a Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. (N. B. You turn in just by the Sun Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.)

They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the most confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing:

And of all SORTS of CONSUMPTIONS, even when so far advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any

Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst Asthma's and Consumptions of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffocating Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; they admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimonious Humours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consumptions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Soreness, Shortness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when feared. They are also exceeding nutritive and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitutions, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine is (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which many are severely troubled with Night and Morning; and also for the Chin Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; is so agreeable, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any Consumption.

In short, these unparallel'd Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (and therefore despite the faint Efforts of all Counterfeiters or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the most Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, and are made Publick for Common Good.
